Bitcoin trader kills self, names cop in suicide note

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE AHMEDABAD, MAY 19

A 50-YEAR-OLD Bitcoin trader from Ranip area was on Sunday found hanging at his residence. A suicide note found there alleges he was harassed by a deputy superintendent of police (DySP) rank officer from Gandhinagar and his brother. Police have registered a case of accidental death and further investigations are on.

The deceased trader has been identified as Bharat Patel. The suicide note was recovered from Patel's room, where he was found hanging from a ceiling hook. The note says that DySP Chirag Savani and his 'elder brother' had been harassing Patel with reference to some investment done on their behalf in Bitcoins.

Bharat had recently experienced loss in the share market, the police said.

The suicide note says Bharat had invested in some amount of Bitcoin on behalf of the Savani brothers in the past and suffered losses. It alleges that DySP Savani used to come to Bharat's home along with his elder brother and asked him about the Bitcoin transaction and put extreme pressure on him.

"I am extremely troubled and my life is in a turmoil. The two had threatened and asked me to return all the Bitcoins that I had invested for them. I am left with no other option than to commit suicide, and the reason behind this act is the pressure made by the two brothers. My family is not responsible in anyway for this act," the suicide note reads.

Taking cognizance of the note, Police Inspector J G Patel sald. It has come out in our ininal probe that the deceased used to livest in share markets and he had recently experienced heavy

EXIT POLLS

Jubilant BJP says it's 'Modi wave', Cong dismisses forecast

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE GANDHINAGAR, MAY 19

WITH EXIT POLLS predicting a clean sweep for the BJP-led National Democratic Alliance (NDA) in the Lok Sabha elections, Gujarat Chief Minister Vijay Rupani on Sunday said the people of the country had already made up their minds that they want Narendra Modi to be the prime minister again.

"The way the election progressed in phases, only one issue had remained: in whose hands the country will be safe. Who will give strong leadership? Who will be the Prime Minister? And Modi ji is unbeaten in that," Rupani said, reacting to the results of several exit polls announced on Sunday. "When there is a wave in elections, it covers all the states. I believe that NDA will get more than 330 seats. BJP will also get more than 282 seats_In Gujarat too, we will win all 26 seats."

Most of the exit polls showed the BJP winning all the 26 seats in Gujarat. Rupani pointed out that the exit polls also showed a BJP victory in most seats in states like Madhya Pradesh and Rajasthan where Congress had formed the government just three to four months ago. In Gujarat's December 2017

Assembly elections, the Congress had won a very competitive 77 seats in the 182member Assembly, nearly snatching away victory from the BIP. The Congress has been expecting to ride that wave of support in the state to bag several of the 26 seats in the Lok Sabha elections. However, the exit poll numbers predict a rout.

NEWSX-NETA

Congress spokesperson in Gujarat Manish Doshi dismissed the exit poll results. "Instead of the exit poll, we believe in the actual poll. As per the actual poll, Congress fought the elections on the issues of the country. We did issue-based politics and we got response also. And in that regard, I do not find these exit polls correct," said Doshi, "We are optimistic that the Congress will get much better results (than shown by most exit polls). And Congress will get more seats in the country and in Gujarat than shown by the exit polls."

The ruling BJP, however, was sure that the exit polls results were in tune with the 'people's belief that the country wants to see Narendra Modi as Prime Minister, as it did in 2014.

"There is no reason why we should lose a single seat (in Gujarat). People's trust and affection towards Modiji has continued," Rupani said. He added that BJP national president Amit Shah fighting the elections from Gujarat had given a boost to party workers, Rupani also said that all the party workers, even those who are sitting Members of Parliament and had been denied a ticket, had worked tirelessly for the party.

Rupani lashed out at the Opposition Congress and West Bengal Chief Minister Mamata Banerjee and alleged that Congress would blame EVMs or the alleged bias of the Election Commission to cover up for the "failed leadership" of party president Rahul Gandhi.

"Congress's attitude has been like that. They will not accept Rahul Gandhi's leadership failure. The entire blame of the defeat will be put on EVM, EC and other people," Rupani said.

Gujarat BJP's spokesperson Bharat Pandya said, "One thing is certain that all the exit polls are showing BJP forming the government, Each exit poll reflects the people's support for the BJP. So, we believe that BJP and NDA will clearly form the government," In 2014, there was a current pushing for Modi to be made PM, he said, "Similar situation is there this time also," he added.

The counting of votes will take place on May 23.

I and Amin had a big role in securing Modi's life, political career: Vanzara

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE AHMEDABAD, MAY 19

WEEKS AFTER being discharged by the special CBI court in the 2004 Ishrat Jahan alleged fake encounter case, former police officers D G Vanzara and N K Amin took part in a bike rally in Ahmedabad on Sunday as part of their felicitation by Jaher Nagrik Samman Samiti, an umbrella outfit of 25 small organisations in Gujarat and Rajasthan.

including Karni Sena. Speaking at the felicitation ceremony, Vanzara, who was deputy commissioner of police in the Detection of Crime Branch (Ahmedabad) when the alleged fake encounter took place 14 years ago, said, "We (He and Amin) had a big role in securing (Prime Minister Narendrabhai Modi's life and his political career. Because kahin par nazar aur kahin par nishana tha, magar nazar toh lagi lekin nishaana chuk gaya (The target was somewhere and the sight was set elsewhere, but they missed the target). The target was Narendrabhai Modi."

Modi was then chief minister of Gujarat and Amin was assistant commissioner of police in the DCB. Police had then claimed that Ishrat and three others, killed in an "encounter" on the outskirts of Ahmedabad on June 15, 2004, were Lashkare-Toiba operatives and had come to kill Modi.

"Our encounter was real, but by claiming it fake we were falsely arrested. In this we (he and Amin) were not the targets, but Narendra Modi was," Vanzara, who was discharged after the BJP government in Gujarat refused to sanction their prosecution.
